

This could be your EUROTeV-Memo

G. Guignard¹, N. Walker²

April 11, 2005

Abstract

EUROTeV-Memos are internal notes and can be published by any EUROTeV member and if thematically close to EUROTeV matters also by external collaborators. EUROTeV-Memos will not be refereed and should be used to document the technical and scientific progress of the tasks. EUROTeV-Memos will be published on www.eurotev.org and are default worldwide readable. A EUROTeV-Memo number will be assigned through the EUROTeV Scientific Coordinators.

¹ CERN, Geneva, Switzerland

² DESY, Hamburg, Germany

1 Introduction

2 Cool Stuff

2.1 Subsection

2.1.1 Subsubsection

Paragraph

3 Conclusion

Acknowledgement

This work is supported by the Commission of the European Communities under the 6th Framework Programme “Structuring the European Research Area”, contract number RIDS-011899.

References